 Do your own roadside & waterside clean-up! *****

Organize a trash pick-up at your favorite campground, parking place, riverbank, neighborhood or elsewhere! Thanks to Taos County and Amigos Bravos, trash bags are available April 19 and April 22 to individuals or teams (following NM Dept of Health rules) for your own trash pick-ups. No household garbage! Send text or email to Lorenzo Gutierrez, Taos County Solid Waste Code Enforcement Official, 575-779-8941 or lorenzo.gutierrez@taoscounty.org. Please take a photo of the filled bag(s) and send it to Lorenzo with the exact location. The County will pick up the bags. For a partial list of events, write to paula.claycomb@gmail.com.

Thursday, April 22, 10:00 a.m. Mountain Time – Global Leaders, Activists, Actors and Musicians Join EARTHDAY.ORG's Second-Annual "Earth Day Live: Restore Our Earth" Digital Livestream Event EARTHDAY.ORG is bringing together activists, educators, researchers, musicians, artists, influencers and more for its second-annual Earth Day Live: Restore Our Earth digital livestream event.

Parallel to the Biden Administration's global climate summit, the event will feature panel discussions, films, and special musical performances that explore the natural processes, emerging green technologies, and innovative thinking that can restore the world's ecosystems. Building on the success of last year's event, Earth Day Live: Restore Our Earth will be streamed live at 12:00 p.m. ET on April 22 via earthday.org, Facebook, Twitter, Twitch, YouTube, and GEM-TV.

Additionally, TED Countdown is joining forces with EARTHDAY.ORG, creating several original TED Talks to premiere during the livestream and providing additional top-tier climate content by leaders in the space. For more information, visit: <https://www.earthday.org/earth-day-2021/> Community Forums to discuss regenerative agriculture and climate crisis mitigation In the coming months, Zoom and hopefully face-to-face discussions will be organized.
